Handheld nozzle AKRON 3019 BRASS

Akron Brass's handheld nozzle model 3019 handwheel is an ideal solution for demanding industrial and marine environments. Made of bronze, it offers exceptional corrosion resistance and unrivalled durability. Available exclusively from MMF Protection et Sécuritéit guarantees performance and reliability in all operating conditions.

Why choose handheld nozzle bronze hand-held 3019?

This model stands out for its robustness and advanced technical features, offering key benefits:

- Outstanding corrosion resistance: Bronze is particularly suited to wet or salty environments, such as offshore platforms or marine installations.
- Unrivalled durability : Bronze lances offer a long service life, even under intensive use.
- Unquestionable reliability : the mechanical properties of bronze ensure reliable operation and low maintenance.

	of bronze, handheld nozzle 3019 offers onal corrosion resistance, ideal for marine and al environments.
	Ensures constant flow in both diffused and straight jet modes, guaranteeing reliable performance during operations.
	Equipped with a rubber pistol-grip handle for a comfortable grip and improved maneuverability.

Integrated purge function	Allows debris to be purged without interrupting the flow, ensuring continuous, efficient use.
Compatibility	Compatible with Quick Attack 794 foam tube for efficient use with foam or water.

Recommended applications

The handheld nozzle bronze 3019 is particularly suited to the following environments:

- Offshore platforms: its bronze design enables it to withstand saline conditions.
- Industrial installations: ideal for industrial sites requiring a robust handheld nozzle.
- High-risk areas: guaranteeing performance and safety in critical situations.

Why trust MMF Protection et Sécurité?

As Akron Brass' main reseller and authorized repair center in France, we guarantee you:

1. Expert support: advice on choosing the right equipment for your needs.
2. Responsive after-sales service: repairs carried out by certified technicians.
3. Immediate availability of spare parts: reduced downtime for your equipment.

To find out more about the handheld nozzle model 3019, or for any advice you may require, please contact MMF Protection et Sécuritéakron Brass, your reference partner for Akron Brass equipment in France.