

Micro Case 1050

Peli's Micro Case is the ideal solution for protecting your sensitive equipment, whether it's small, fragile electronic components, cameras, smartphones or other precious items. Designed for maximum protection, this case is dimensionally stable, waterproof, shockproof and dustproof. Thanks to its advanced technical features, it's perfect for withstanding the most extreme conditions while guaranteeing optimum security for your valuables.

Features :

- IP67-certified waterproofing: the Peli Micro Case is designed to withstand immersion under water up to 1 meter for 30 minutes, offering reliable protection against moisture and splashes.
- Compact dimensions: Ideal for small items, this case takes up little space while offering maximum protection.
- High-quality materials: Made from hard-wearing, dimensionally stable plastic, the Peli case guarantees long-lasting durability.
- Watertight closure with carabiner: The closure is designed to be both watertight and easy to open, yet equipped with a carabiner for secure transport.
- Automatic pressure-balancing valve: This valve balances the pressure inside the case, keeping water out while compensating for pressure variations.
- Colored trim: The Micro Case is available in opaque or transparent versions, with colored trim for a customized look.
- Rubber O-ring: The rubber liner provides extra protection by creating an O-ring effect, preventing any infiltration of dust or water.

Benefits:

- Extreme protection: The combination of waterproofing, shock resistance and dust resistance guarantees optimum protection for your equipment, even in the most extreme conditions.
- Ease of use: Its locking system and snap hook make it easy to open, while ensuring maximum safety.
- Choice of transparency or opacity: With its transparent or opaque version, you can easily identify your items while adding a touch of personalization thanks to the colored trim.
- Limited lifetime warranty: Peli offers a limited lifetime warranty on this product (subject to applicable laws), giving you long-term peace of mind.
