100 lungs airways for manikin Sani-Child

Hygienic consumables for child CPR training

Distributed by MMF Protection et Sécuritéthese individual systems (facepieces + lungs) are designed for single use on the manikin Sani-bébé. Ideal for safe training in lifesaving techniques, particularly cardiopulmonary resuscitation for infants.

A disposable system for fast, safe training sessions

Each consumable is easily replaced, ensuring impeccable hygiene between each trainee without internal cleaning of manikin. This pack of 100 units guarantees smooth, health-compliant training.

Technical specifications

- Packaging: pack of 100 face shields + disposable lungs
- Compatibility: manikin Sani-enfant
- Use: single-use system - hygienic and latex-free
- Estimated total weight: approx. 0.4 lb (? 180 g)

Why life-saving training is essential

The use of individual consumables enables repeated infant CPR training sessions without health risks. Learning ventilation and chest compressions becomes more realistic and safe thanks to this dedicated material, essential for group sessions and professional trainers.

Areas of use

This pack is particularly suited to trainers in first aid, rescue services, fire departments or healthcare establishments. It is designed for group sessions, practical exams or first aid demonstrations.

Professional distribution by MMF Protection et Sécurité

This product is distributed exclusively by MMF Protection et Sécuritéa recognized expert in hygienic teaching equipment for CPR and life-saving training.

MMF
Protection et Sécurité