

POLYPONSE II wrench wrench

Universal torque wrench

Made of non-sparking brass, the Universal Wrench R.Pons 3923.782 is designed to withstand the demanding conditions of emergency service. It can be used to tighten and loosen half-couplings from DN 20 to 115, offering great versatility. Its ergonomic design ensures a comfortable grip, even when wearing protective gloves

Benefits

- Quality material: non-sparking brass for enhanced safety.
- Wide compatibility: Suitable for half-fittings from DN 20 to 115.
- Ergonomic design: Easy to grip, even when wearing gloves.
- Durability: resistant to intensive use.

Recommended applications

Ideal for firefighters, emergency services and maintenance technicians, this wrench is used for :

- Handling half-couplings on fire networks.
- Work on water systems.
- Maintain fire safety equipment.

Compatibility & functions

Compatibility: Half-couplings from DN 20 to 115.

Functions: Tightening and loosening half-couplings, handling water systems.