PELI™ Mitylite 1960 Flashlight

The MityLite 1960 LED is a compact, lightweight flashlight designed to provide simple, reliable lighting during inspections, checks, or one-time tasks. Measuring 13.9 cm and weighing 0.05 kg, it's easy to carry in a pocket, toolbox, vehicle, or work bag.

It turns on by rotating the head, allowing for quick use without an external button. It is submersible and suitable for damp environments or those exposed to water. It delivers 24 lumens, with a beam range of up to 51 m and a runtime of approximately 3 hours.

Technical Specifications

Technical Specifications – MityLite 1960 LED
Product Type	Compact, submersible LED flashlight
Light source	LED
Luminous flux	24 lumens
Battery life	3 h
Beam range	51 m
Beam intensity	657 cd
Activation	By rotating the head
Power	1.5 V AAA alkaline batteries
Length	13.9 cm
Weight	0.05 kg
Water resistance	Submersible

Application

- Inspection and monitoring in low-light environments;
- auxiliary lighting for vehicles, workshops, or emergency kits;

- use in damp environments or environments exposed to water;
- occasional tasks requiring a lightweight and compact flashlight;
- daily transport thanks to its compact size.

FAQ – MityLite 1960 LED

How do you turn on the MityLite 1960 LED?

This flashlight turns on by rotating the head. This simple system minimizes external controls and allows for quick activation.

Is this flashlight suitable for damp environments?

Yes. The MityLite 1960 LED is rated as submersible, making it suitable for damp environments or those exposed to water.

When should you choose this compact flashlight?

It’s ideal for users looking for a lightweight, easy-to-carry flashlight suitable for inspections or occasional tasks, with a beam range of up to 51 m.