Vanity 4'care Universal

The Vanity 4'Care organizes first-aid supplies into four specialized modules, each identified by a specific color and label. This design allows for direct access to the supplies needed for a specific type of injury, without having to search through the entire kit.

A label summarizing the contents is located on the case as well as on the inside of the lid. A tourniquet with a permanent marker completes the four modules.

A system designed for quick access to supplies

The four modules are housed in resealable, color-coded, and clearly labeled pouches. This separation makes it easier to locate the supplies needed for a given situation and also simplifies checking the remaining supplies after use.

For which professional environments?

Thanks to the diversity of its contents, the Vanity 4'Care is particularly well-suited for environments where various types of injuries may occur: workshops, industrial sites, utility rooms, construction sites, or emergency response vehicles. As with all first-aid equipment, its contents must be consistent with the risks identified in the workplace.
