Forearm and hand for manikin adult lifesaver 48 kg

Spare part for manikin - repair and maintenance

Designed for safety and rescue professionals, this forearm with hand is a spare part compatible with manikins adult rescue 48 kg. Ideal for replacing a worn or damaged part, it extends the life of your manikins used in intensive rescue, portage, evacuation or fire-fighting exercises.

Reliability, strength and compatibility

Manufactured from resistant technical materials, this element ensures perfect resistance to traction, repeated handling and immersion. Its design meets the requirements of fire departments, safety trainers and rescue teams. It can be easily fitted to adult 48 kg models, enabling you to quickly return your manikin to operational condition.

Technical specifications

- Type: forearm + right or left hand (your choice)
- Compatibility: manikin adult 48 kg (fire training, rescue)
- Material: technical polymer, reinforced and washable
- Fastening: quick-fit with screws and pin
- Use: replacement after wear, breakage or intensive training

Field applications

This replacement arm is designed for manikins rescue equipment used in fire training centers, rescue schools, industry, maritime platforms or high-risk areas. It guarantees continuity of use during portage, extrication, fire hose reel and emergency evacuation exercises.

Distribution MMF Protection et Sécurité

This product is distributed by MMF Protection et Sécuritéa recognized specialist in training equipment for fire safety, rescue and professional intervention training.